Why do you want to work with our company?

What does this job mean to you in the context of your current life plan? There's no wrong answer here.

How do you handle fast-paced, high-stress environments? Examples?

Skills, Knowledge and Talent – please read the following before answering the next few questions.

Skills - The how-to of a role. The capabilities that can be transferred from one person to another. Example: If you were an accountant, arithmetic would be a skill.

Knowledge - Simply, what you are aware of. There are two type of knowledge: factual and experiential. Factual knowledge is what you know. Experiential knowledge is what you picked up along the way.

Talent - A recurring pattern of thought, feeling or behavior that can be productively applied

What are some of your skills?

What are you knowledgeable of?

What are some of your talents?

Communication and honesty are extremely important in our company.
Circle one: Sounds Awesome or Sounds Awful.

We leave our egos and insecurities at the door when it comes to feedback, criticism, and helping each other improve our game.
Circle one: Thanks for helping me improve or I'm fine, leave me alone.

Knowledge is power. We have high expectations for knowledge of our food/beverage programs, finance, and other facets of the business that are not usually part of restaurant jobs. We will teach, but self-motivation is crucial as well. In short, you need to care.
Circle one: Mega learning opportunity or It's just a job.
